From (Name) F. C. Butler Esquire, M.A., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Registrar, High Court.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

LAW (GENERAL) Department.

Sir,

(B) In G.O.No.3172 Law (General) dated the 13th November 1924, sanction was accorded for a special pay of Rs.10 per mensem for advanced qualification in typewriting to T.C.Anantha Ayyar, shorthand writer of the District Court, South Kanara from the date of that order, instead of from the 3rd October 1924, the date of his transfer to the District Court (from the Sub Court where he was drawing the special pay already). As the G.O. does not accord sanction for drawing the special pay from the 3rd October, the District Judge submits (vide copy of his letter and its enclosures attached) that the G.O. as it stands, inflicts great hardship on the shorthand-writer since he has to lose his allowance from the 3rd October the date of his transfer to the 13th November 1924 the date of the G.O. for no fault of his. The Hon'ble the Judges agree with the District Judge and recommend that, as originally requested in my letter R.O.C.2662/24 dated 15th October 1924, sanction may be accorded for drawing the allowance from the 3rd October 1924. I am directed to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to issue orders accordingly.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

Registrar.

Copy of letter from the District Judge, South Kanara, No5128, dated the 5th December 1924, to the Registrar, High Court, Madras.

In forwarding herewith an application by T.C.Anantha Iyer, permanent typist and shorthand writer of the local Sub Court and acting clerk and shorthand writer of this Court, I have the honour to state that Government (B) have sanctioned in G.O.No.3172 Law (General) dated the 13th November 1924 communicated with High Court Dis.No.2100/24 dated the 21st November 1924 the special pay of Rs.10/- per mensem to the applicant only with effect from 13th November 1924, the date of the order, instead of from 3rd October 1924, the date on which he was appointed as shorthand writer of this court on the retirement of the permanent incumbent. As permanent typist of the Sub Court he was drawing the special pay, and he was transferred to thi court not at his request but owing to the exigencies of service, no other competent shorthand writer having been available, and the deprivation of the allowance for the period from 3--10--1924 to 12-11-1924 has virtually operated as a punishment to him for no fault of his. I request therefore that Government may be moved to reconsider their order and to sanction the drawal of the allowance with effect from 3rd October 1924, the date of his transfer to this Court.

To

The Hon'ble the Chief Justice and the Puisne Judges of the High Court of Judicature at Madras.

Through

The District Judge of South Kanara, Mangalore.

The humble petition of T.C. Anantha Aiyar permanent Typist and Shorthand writer of the Sub Court, South Kanara and Ag. Clerk and Shorthand writer of the Dt. Court, S.Kanara

Dated the 28th November 1924.

Most humbly and respectfully showeth,

That Your lorships' petitioner was transferred to the District Court in the interests of public service in the vacancy caused by the retirement of the permanent Short hand writer on the 2rd of October 1924 That the petition -er has, till the date of his transfer to the District Court been drawing a monthly salary of Rs. 48-8-0 as Typist, a special pay of Rs. 10 for advanced qualification in type-writing and a shorthand allowance of Rs 20; in all Rs 78-8-0 per mensem. That even though the same pay could be drawn by the petitioner in the District Court also, he being actually engaged in type-writing, his special pay of Rs 10 was withheld for want of a formal sanction from the Govern -ment simply because of the change of designation from the Typist to that of a clerk. So the matter was referred to the High Court for obtaining the necessary sanction of Govt Government, if necessary. The petitioner is informed that sanction has beenraccorded to draw the special pay only from the 13th of November 1924, thus disallowing the same for the intervening period from the 3rd of October 1924 the date of his joining in the Dt. Court and the 13th of November 1924 the date of the order permitting petitioner to draw the allowance.

In this connection the petitioner humbly begs to submit that it is very hard to ask the petitioner to forego the allowance for the said intervening period, even though he has been drawing the same fill the date of his transfer to the Dt. Court simply because a formal sanction of the Government had to be obtained.

The petitioner therefore most respectfully begsto request that Your Lordships may be graciously pleased to obtain the necessary sanction of the Government, if necessary, for drawing the said allowance during the intervening period from the 3nd October to 13th November 1924.

For which act of generosity the petitioner shall ever remain grateful.

J. C. Ananta Aiyar

Ag, Clerk and Shorthand writer

(C.P. 236 B) From the Regr., High Court,
R.O.C. No. 3412/24, d/ 6.1.1925.

Special pay — J. C. Ananta Ayyar, Shorthand Writer, District Court, South Kanara — Typewriting — allowance of Rs. 10/- per mensem — Date of effect — Reconsideration of G.O. No. 3172 Law (Genl.), dated 13th November 1924.

In connection with the grant of duty allowances to incumbents of certain posts of clerks and typists, disposed of in G.O. No. 2595 Law (General), dated the 23rd October 1922, the Finance Department has stated that in recent cases it has been decided to grant these allowances from the date of order. Since then it has been usual to sanction them only from the date of order. Following precedents (vide a few of them put up), the special pay sanctioned to J. C. Ananta Ayyar in G.O. No. 3172 Law (Genl.), dated the 13th November 1924, was allowed to be drawn only from the date of the order, though the High Court had recommended that that the order might take effect from the 3rd October 1924, the date of Ananta Aryar's transfer to the District Court of South Kanara from the Sub-Court, Mangalore. Please see also paragraph 2 of the notes to the G.O. The shorthand writer in question now requests a reconsideration of this G.O., and the District Judge and the High Court recommend that the allowance may be sanctioned with effect from the 3rd October instead of from the 13th November 1924. It is for consideration whether this Deptt will support it, and, if so, the file has to be sent to Finance for remarks.

The all^ce is given for shorthand & typewriting work. It would appear that the Clerk was doing this kind of work from 3rd Oct on which date he was transferred to the Dt Court. The principle stated above that such all^ces should be paid only from the date of the G.O. seems open to the objection that Clerks may have to suffer for unforeseen delays in the offices into which their applications have to be sent.

Finance (E.R.)

The proposal is to allow T. C. Ananta Ayyar, Shorthand writer, Dist. Court, Sikanara, Special pay of Rs 10 p.m from 3.10.24, the date of his transfer to the Dt. Court, instead from 13.11.24 as sanctioned in G.O. 3172 Law (Genl) dt 13.11.24. It is stated that he was drawing the Special pay in the Sub Court, Mangalore, prior to his transfer to the Dt. Court and that he was actually engaged in typewriting in the latter Court from 3.10.24. With reference to A on page 2 ante, it is stated that the rule that Special pay for Stenographers and typists is only granted from the date of the order of sanction. As the transfer in this case is only from one office to another in the same department, Finance need not object to the proposal. There is provision in the budget for the grant of the Special pay (Please vide also linked case)
